

Common Ground: Bridging Police and Community Collaboration

i. Content.

Index

i.	Content.	3
ii.	Dedication of this book.	6
iii.	Authors.	7
iv.	Introduction	12
v.	A Common Ground Model	16
vi.	Bridging the past to the future.	18
I. A Longitudinal Examination.		20
1.	New Generation of Thought Based on Gains of the Past.	20
2.	Earlier History.	22
3.	Adding an Important Variable.	23
4.	Violence Reduction Project NC, Belmont Neighborhood (#1).	28
5.	Cost Effectiveness of CPOP Process in the Belmont Neighborhood.	38
6.	The Need for Inclusion of People is Critical.	40
7.	Problem-Solving Must Include Sustainable Change Markers.	40
8.	Project UaSA, Orleans County, NY State (#2).	43
	1) Precontemplation Stage	45
	2) Contemplation Stage	46
	3) Preparation Stage	46
	▪ Training	48
	▪ Training Schedule	48
	4) Action Stage	50
	5) Maintenance Stage	51

II. Examination of the Transtheoretical Model of Change to Community Problem-Oriented Policing.	56
1. Stage of Change.	57
2. Decisional Balance.	59
3. Self-Efficacy.	60
4. Processes of Change.	60
5. Stage-Matched Interventions.	62
6. Application of the TTM to Community Policing.	63
7. Project Outline.	64
8. Steps Involved in the Development of TTM Measures.	65